Lions' pride at 40 year anniversary

Bray: Lions Club celebrate a milestone in helping good causes

FOUNDING and current members of The Lions Club of Maidenhead gathered to celebrate its 40th birthday on Sunday. More than 100 people attended to mark the milestone with the club, which worked to raise about £50,000 for local causes last year.

THE Lions Club of Maidenhead marked its 40th anniversary with a celebratory lunch for members old and new at Monkey Island Hotel.

Thirty current members were joined by more than 70 guests, including Maidenhead MP Theresa May, for the celebrations on Sunday.

Current president Brenda Butler welcomed back the club's first president, Bill Glanville, and three other original members who signed the founding charter 40 years ago.

The Lions Club organises fundraising events such as the Duck Derby, the Christmas food collection and the FundRun to support local causes – ranging from £50 for a school uniform to £5,000 for Thames Hospice.

About £50,000 was raised overall last year, of which more than £30,000 was collected from the annual Swimathon, which saw 800 swimmers take to the pool at the Magnet Leisure Centre from 7am to 9pm.

Mayor of Windsor and Maidenhead, Cllr Andrew Jenner, developer Michael Shanly and Maidenhead Advertiser editor Martin Trepte were among the 106 to attend the birthday lunch.

Brenda said: "It was lovely and gave a chance to thank them (the original members) for setting it up."

"We're still thriving and we have 40 members in our 40th year, which is great considering some clubs are down to less than 20."

"It means every year we have been raising a lot of money and helping the local community – we are very proud of ourselves and our predecessors."

■ The Lions Club of Maidenhead will hold a charity fair on Saturday, November 2, at Maidenhead Town Hall in St Ives Road between 10am-3.30pm.

Pub owner resubmits bid to turn it into a house

WARREN ROW: The application to turn The Snooty Fox pub into a house has been resubmitted to the Royal Borough.

A decision over the pub in Warren Row Road was due to be made by July 16.

It was withdrawn for the applicant to provide additional details.

In a statutory document lodged with the application The Snooty

Fox owner Tim Smee has detailed the pub's 'financial collapses' since he bought the premises in 2006.

In a covering letter submitted by the agent on behalf of Mr Smee it says: "The conclusion is clear that the premises can not be viable as a public house/restaurant."

The letter also states that the Warren Row Road community has never supported the pub and that they would welcome its change of use.

Before the pub opened in 2007, 40 residents objected to it being granted a licence.

The pub would be turned into a single house with at least four bedrooms.

A decision is due to be determined by Monday, December 2.
